Ana Santiago, a proud first-generation Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) recipient from Mexico City, has called Westfield, Indiana, home for over twenty years. An alumna of Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis (IUPUI), Ana earned her degree in Public Affairs while balancing a full-time career in banking. After seven years in the financial sector, she transitioned to a role with the City of Indianapolis, driven by her passion for community service.

In her current role as a Mayor's Neighborhood Advocate at the Mayor's Office, Ana is dedicated to engaging, educating, and empowering residents in the Downtown and Near Westside areas of Indianapolis, also known as Area 10. Her bilingual skills and commitment to volunteerism enhance her ability to connect with and serve the diverse community she represents.

In addition to her professional role, Ana serves as the President of Indianapolis' first Sister City partnership with Querétaro, Mexico. In this capacity, she and her committee work to foster meaningful exchanges between the two cities in areas such as education, public safety, and the arts and culture, strengthening the ties between their communities.
