

Mental Health Technicians, Behavioral Health Associates, and Psychiatric Aides are in high demand in Indiana. Complete the Mental Health Direct Support Tech Certificate and get qualified to work in hospitals, outpatient care centers, residential facilities, and more. Or, get an affordable start on your bachelor's degree by transferring your credits to a four-year institution.

$36,367 median salary

HUMS 101	Intro to Human Services	3
HUMS 102	Helping Relationship Techniques	3
HUMS 104	Crisis Intervention	3
PSYC 101	Intro to Psychology	3
IVYT 116/111	Student Success	1	13 credit hours

Mental Health Direct Support

HUMS 103	Interviewing and Assessment	3
HUMS 205	Theories of Behavior Modification	3
PSYC 205	Abnormal Psychology	3	9 credit hours

Choose Three

HLHS 101	Medical Terminology	3
HLHS 113	Dementia Care	3
HLHS 125	Behavioral Health	3
HUMS 113	Theories of Substance Abuse and Addiction	3
HUMS 116	Intro to Disabilities	3
HUMS 117	Foundations of Direct Support Professionals	3
HUMS 140	Loss and Grief	3
HUMS 162	Community Healthcare Worker	3
HUMS 206	Group Process and Skills	3
HUMS 208	Treatment Models of Substance Abuse	3
HUMS 209	Counseling Issues in Substance Abuse	3
HUMS 210	Issues of Substance Abuse in Family Systems	3
HUMS 269	Human Development and Ecological Systems	3
MORT 119	Bereavement Care	3	9 credit hours

31 credit hours