

Melissa Moore

Family Scholar House Works Regional Coordinator

Melissa Moore was born and raised in Muncie, Indiana. She serves as the Regional Coordinator from Family Scholar House Works. Melissa has a bachelor's degree in Criminal Justice and Criminology and has worked in the criminal justice and social science fields for over 20 years. She is happy to return to providing services and resources to her community. Melissa is able to assist students with community resources and things to help them reach their full potential.

Contact Information

mmoore755@ivytech.edu